Dancers U8 and U9 must perform a traditional set dance; dancers U10 MUST do a set dance in 6/8 timing and dancers U11 and older may perform a set dance of their choosing. For competitions with TWENTY (20) or fewer participating dancers, all will return to perform their set dance.
3. WORLD QUALIFICATION: Qualifications for the 2023 World Championships are per current CLRG rules: five (5) qualifiers for the first twenty (20) dancers or part thereof and one (1) qualifier for each subsequent ten (10) dancers or part thereof in Solo Championships U10 and older with the exception of Men 20&O which is seven (7) qualifiers for the first twenty (20) dancers or part thereof and one (1) for each subsequent five (5) or part thereof. Current World Championship medal holders automatically qualify, provided they "participate in their Oireachtas". As such they will be skipped over if they finish in a WQ position. However, dancers who qualified at the NAIDC do not get skipped over. Dancers unable to compete at the World Championships due to a judging conflict may defer their qualification to the following year, and the next-in-line dancer may be permitted to enter at the discretion of CLRG.
4. NAIDC QUALIFICATION: Per IDTANA rules, the top ten (10) dancers plus twenty-five percent (25%) of the number of competitors who dance in Solo Championship events will qualify for the 2023 North American Irish Dance Championships subject to being recalled at their regional Oireachtas. Dancers competing in Open Championships at sanctioned feiseanna also qualify, as do dancers who qualified for the 2022 NAIDC but could not compete due to judging conflicts. All entrants to the 2022 ECRO must accept that such judging conflicts may happen and understand their status could be deferred for one year. Dancers who will be in the U8 and U9 categories in 2023 may be entered into the 2023 NAIDC at their teacher's discretion.

SOLO CHAMPIONSHIP TREBLE REEL COMPETITIONS

5. SOLO TREBLE REELS: Solo Championship level dancers may enter a separate Treble Reel event for an additional fee.
