November 29, 2024

Hello Eastern Canada!

On behalf of the Irish Dance Teachers Association of Canada - Eastern Region, I am so happy to welcome you to the 2024 Eastern Canadian Oireachtas! We are excited to have you here at the Sheraton in the heart of downtown Toronto to celebrate our golden era.

The very first Eastern Canadian Regional Oireachtas was held at Neil McNeil High School in Toronto on Nov 10, 1974. This makes this year the 50th, or golden, anniversary of the event. To see how far Irish dance has come in Eastern Canada over the last half century is beyond amazing. The first Oireachtas was a one-day event, held in a high school with a panel of three adjudicators. Both the event and the dancing have become more impressive year after year. And for this, we must give thanks to YOU! Whether you're a dancer, a parent, a teacher, an adjudicator, an examiner, a volunteer, a sponsor, or anyone else, you have helped shape Irish dance in Eastern Canada and have truly made this a golden era.

Like anything in life, there have been ups and downs across the decades. In recent years, and even weeks, there have been challenges both in the Irish dance community and the world at large. And with these challenges comes change and sometimes, feelings of disappointment. But in the middle of any challenge lies an opportunity to do better. To seize these opportunities, it's crucial that we work together and keep hope. To quote Martin Luther King Jr., "We must accept finite disappointment, but never lose infinite hope." Now is the time for us to advocate for the values we believe in and co-create the next era that we can all be proud of. I believe all of us, and our shared passion of Irish dance, are worth it.

This event would not be possible without the support of many people. Thank you to our sponsors, vendors, teachers, and volunteers for making this weekend happen. Thank you to the Sheraton Centre Toronto for hosting us. And thank you to all the parents for supporting your dancer as they pursue their passion. On behalf of the teachers, I would like to wish the very best of luck to all dancers this weekend. Have fun, give it your all, and go for the gold!

LEGENDS OF CANADA

Mary Bryan

Mary was born in England and at the age of five was adopted by an Irish family. She began her dancing career in England at the early age of five years old. Irish dance in the 1950s was quite small and classes were very popular for the Irish Immigrant families that went to England to find work. The cultural aspect included music, dance and language.

Mary competed at the highest level of dance during the 1950s and attained many awards for dance and Irish language. She was Cross Channel Champion when traveling to Dublin for the All Ireland Championships in 1958. She came to Canada in 1964. She was asked to dance for a fund-raising event by Mr. O'Hearn, a second-generation Irish man. Soon after this she was approached to teach dancing in St. Catharines, Ontario. Formal classes began in 1967. Much competitive success followed and many St. Catharines dancers were Canadian champions and represented Canada at the World Championships. Her dancers carried her legacy in both Ontario and in Nova Scotia as teachers.

Mary continued to teach until knee injuries caused her to slow down. Her niece Kelly Taylor became the principal teacher of the school in 2002. Mary is now a consultant and choreographer in the Taylor School of Irish Dance. As well as being a successful qualified teacher, she is also a qualified adjudicator for Irish dancing and has been privileged to have adjudicated all over Canada and the USA as well as England, Ireland, Scotland, Australia and New Zealand.

Although Mary is English and acquired her Irish roots through adoption, she loves everything Irish. She says that she is privileged to have been trusted with hundreds of children to teach whose families also love everything Irish.

LEGENDS OF CANADA

The Butler Family

Mary Josephine "Mae" McDonnell Butler learned to dance in her native Dublin from Maggie Kane. Mae and husband Patrick Joseph "Paddy" Butler arrived in Toronto in 1953 with their sons, Michael, Patrick Jr., and daughter June. Mae opened an Irish dancing school where authentic Irish dancing was taught in its true and traditional manner.

At that time, she was the only TCRG in Toronto. Irish dancing was almost non-existent, but Mae went on to establish an Irish dancing empire. In 1964, Mae Butler traveled to New York to become one of the founding members of the Irish Dance Teachers Association of North America. The Butler Family were held in very high esteem among their fellow teachers, parents and students and this is epitomized by the refinement and perfection they projected through their highly trained dancers who competed with honour and excellence throughout North America and Ireland.

The Butlers, to their credit, produced many champion dancers, including their son, Patrick Jr., and their daughter June; both of whom went on to teach under the family name and spread Irish dance throughout eastern Canada and the United States. Along with World Champion dancers, the Butler School produced some 39 teachers and adjudicators. Mae Butler died in Toronto on January 16, 2003. She was a Vice President of An Coimisiún, and was inducted into the Irish Cultural Hall of Fame by The North American Feis Commission in 1982. Paddy Butler was a TMRF and renowned Irish musician; he died June 27, 1999, in Toronto. June Butler died June 19, 2003. Paddy Butler Jr. died in March 2007. Today people of Irish heritage humbly express their appreciation to the Butler Family. Their memory will live on forever in their children through Irish dancing and music.

LEGENDS OF CANADA

Brigid Grant

Brigid Grant was born and raised in County Kilkenny, where she studied Irish dancing under Mrs. Ruth until age fourteen. She emigrated to Toronto, Canada in 1958 where she met and married the love of her life, Bill Grant.

When Brigid's oldest son David was five years old she returned to dance classes under the direction of Noreen McMullin Quinn (a former pupil of the great Anna McCoy). Brigid began teaching her own school in 1968 and retired from teaching in 2011, at which time the school was passed to her niece and goddaughter Rose Fearon in an amalgamation with the Butler Fearon O'Connor School.

During her more than forty years of teaching Brigid produced many Canadian, North American and a few World Champions and had great success both in solos and teams on a regional and international basis. Brigid is also very proud to have been one of the founders of the Irish Dance Teachers Association of Canada.

Through the years her dancers have performed in numerous productions, including Riverdance, Lord of the Dance, the Trinity Company and many more. Brigid is also proud of the many former students who have become TCRGs and opened their own schools. Brigid has been a well-known and respected adjudicator for many years and enjoyed the travel and company of her fellow legends through that time.

An accomplished singer, Brigid is very proud to have passed on her love of Irish culture, music and dance to her own children and her grandchildren. That passion was passed on with great success, as within the family there are titles from the World, North American, All Ireland, Great Britain championships.

Brigid has always felt her calling in life was to provide excellence in dancing while nurturing the same excellence in character to the young lives she has come in contact with. Her love for Irish dance and music is and will be an inspiration to all for generations to come.

LEGENDS OF CANADA

Paula Woodgate

Paula was born Eileen Paula Burke in Cork City, Ireland. In the late 1950s her parents emigrated with the family to Toronto, Canada. As no Irish dancing was available at the time, her mother enrolled her in tap, jazz, and baton. Fortunately, Mae Butler started teaching dancing and Paula was immediately enrolled in her classes. She won many championships in Canada and the United States. At one of her performances in the community she met her husband, Michael Woodgate from Kilkenny, and soon encouraged him to play his button accordion at the feiseanna. Eventually they married, had two children - Shannon and Brian - and devoted themselves to the Woodgate School of Irish Dancing. Paula produced hundreds of champions and her students have the distinction of being the first Canadian school to place in a team event at the World Championships in Dublin. In the early years of the World Championships, they won many Overseas Awards and competed in figure, ceili, and drama events with placements. The Woodgate Irish Dancers have danced for three prime ministers of Canada, the King and Queen of Spain, performed at the Canadian Olympics, and on Canadian television.

Paula is the founding president of the Irish Dance Teachers Association of Canada and through her perseverance Canada was recognized as a separate qualifying region for the World Championships. She established the "parade of champions" and the awarding of sashes, which are now enjoyed worldwide. She has served the Eastern Canadian Region for over 30 years as regional director or in other official capacities. She is an accredited adjudicator in demand worldwide and in North America. Her greatest thrill was being appointed vice president of An Coimisiún le Rincí Gaelacha.

Her love of Irish dancing has produced generations of dancers and she has the distinction of having taught 25 pupils who are now TCRGs. She acknowledges Irish dancing is one of the greatest gifts in her life and spreads through that love her dedication to the promotion of Irish dance. Two of her famous quotes are "pace each other towards perfection" and "without dance there is no music, and without music there is no dance." Paula would like to express her appreciation to CLRG for this recognition and to all those dancers and teachers who have been a part of this journey.
