IN LOVING MEMORY OF IRISH DANCE LEGEND
SUE FAY HEALY

Born in Dublin, Ireland, and a proud Canadian for over 33 years, Sue died peacefully on June 8th at the age of 67, with her loving family by her side. Sue was married to Fran, her one and only love, for 45 years this past March — a beautiful, unwavering partnership filled with love, strength, and adventure. Through every season of life — and especially over the past 18 months of her illness — Fran cared for her, loved her, and nursed her with strength, tenderness, and total devotion. Together they built a life in Canada for themselves and their children: Andrew, Francis & Jennifer. Their family includes Jon Neville, Liza Healy, and Laura Baker, and grandchildren Nola & Nessa Healy, and Desmond & Cormac Neville.

Sue was a mother and Granny like no other — fierce, loving, honest, and endlessly supportive. Those who truly knew her know she was never afraid to speak her mind or tell the truth. She saw people clearly and met them with kindness or directness — often both. She could light up a room just by entering, and if you knew her, you were lucky. Whether she made you laugh, held you close, or even told you off — she did it with heart, wit, and authenticity. We are so proud of the life she lived and the strength she showed every step of the way. She gave everything to her family, her community, and the life she built here.

Irish Dance was her life's passion, starting dance at the age of 8 with the Harvey sisters in Dublin, to a 4th place world podium finish, and eventually to opening SFH Irish Dance months after arriving in Canada. She founded two annual feisanna - the Capital Feis and the Feile Nollaig - bringing opportunities to compete to our region.

Sue would say “Why jog, when you can jig?” She saw the potential in her students before they did, teaching them to work hard, persevere, be resilient and support each other. She was deeply proud to have brought so much Irish dance and culture to Ottawa over the years. As her family and as part of the SFH community, we will continue to honour her legacy and make her proud — every step of the way.

Her light will live on in all of us — especially in her beloved grandchildren, who adored her and carry her spark forward every day.

We celebrated Sue's life exactly as she wanted - a good time with light, laughter, music and joy, inviting those who know how to have a good craic. Just as she lived - fully and fiercely, and that's how we'll remember her, always. Thank you Sue ♥

The Healy family thanks everyone for the love shown during this time. It means more than we can say.

IN FOR A WHISPER, SUE IS GREAT!
OUT FOR A SHOUT, YES SHE IS!

Hello Eastern Canada!

On behalf of the Irish Dance Teachers Association of Canada - Eastern Region, it is my great pleasure to welcome you all to this year's Oireachtas. We are excited and humbled to have you here in the heart of downtown Toronto as we celebrate the 50th instalment of this event!

As we reflect on 2025, it's safe to say that our world has navigated its share of uncertainty. Changes across the political landscape have demanded that we adapt, rethink, and remain resilient in unsettling times. And yet, through it all, the Irish dance world, and in particular our region, has continued to shine bright.

Irish dance in Eastern Canada remains very much alive and well, carried forward by the dedication of our dancers, families, and teachers. In fact, our Oireachtas has seen steady growth year after year, not only in entries, but also in the standard of dancing - a testament to the strength of our schools and the passion that lives within each one of us.

To the teachers who guide, the families who support, the volunteers who work tirelessly, the vendors who supply, the sponsors who subsidize, and the Sheraton Hotel who hosts: THANK YOU. But most of all, I would like to thank the dancers. Each dancer stepping onto the stage this weekend represents countless hours of practice and a deep commitment to the sport, and we are incredibly proud of every one of them.

On behalf of the Eastern Canadian teachers, I would like to wish the very best of luck to all dancers this weekend. Have fun, give it your all, and shine bright!

Bonjour !

Au nom de l'Association des professeurs de danse irlandaise du Canada – Région de l'Est, c'est avec grand plaisir que je vous souhaite la bienvenue aux Championnats Régionaux de cette année. Nous sommes ravis de vous accueillir ici, au cœur du centre-ville de Toronto, pour célébrer la 50e édition de cet événement !

Pendant l'année 2025, il est important de reconnaître que notre monde est en train de traverser une période d'incertitude. Les changements politiques nous ont obligés à nous adapter, à repenser nos pratiques et à faire preuve de résilience. Et pourtant, malgré tout, le monde de la danse irlandaise, et en particulier notre région, continue de prospérer.

La danse irlandaise dans l'Est du Canada demeure plus vivante et dynamique que jamais, grâce au dévouement de nos danseurs, de leurs familles et des professeurs. En effet, l'Oireachtas a connu une croissance constante, non seulement du nombre de participants année après année, mais aussi du niveau de la danse, démontrant la force de nos écoles et la passion qui anime chacun d'entre nous.

Aux professeurs qui nous guident, aux familles qui nous soutiennent, aux bénévoles qui travaillent sans relâche, aux vendeurs qui fournissent, aux commanditaires, et au Sheraton qui nous accueille : MERCI. Mais surtout, j'aimerais remercier les danseurs. Chaque danseur qui monte sur la scène cette fin de semaine représente plusieurs heures d'entraînement et un engagement profond envers le sport, et nous sommes fiers de chacun d'eux.

Au nom des professeurs de l'est du Canada, je souhaite bonne chance à tous les danseurs cette fin de semaine. Amusez-vous, donnez le meilleur de vous-même et brillez sur la scène !

LEGENDS OF CANADA

Mary Bryan

Mary was born in England and at the age of five was adopted by an Irish family. She began her dancing career in England at the early age of five years old. Irish dance in the 1950s was quite small and classes were very popular for the Irish Immigrant families that went to England to find work. The cultural aspect included music, dance and language.

Mary competed at the highest level of dance during the 1950s and attained many awards for dance and Irish language. She was Cross Channel Champion when traveling to Dublin for the All Ireland Championships in 1958. She came to Canada in 1964. She was asked to dance for a fund-raising event by Mr. O'Hearn, a second-generation Irish man. Soon after this she was approached to teach dancing in St. Catharines, Ontario. Formal classes began in 1967. Much competitive success followed and many St. Catharines dancers were Canadian champions and represented Canada at the World Championships. Her dancers carried her legacy in both Ontario and in Nova Scotia as teachers.

Mary continued to teach until knee injuries caused her to slow down. Her niece Kelly Taylor became the principal teacher of the school in 2002. Mary is now a consultant and choreographer in the Taylor School of Irish Dance. As well as being a successful qualified teacher, she is also a qualified adjudicator for Irish dancing and has been privileged to have adjudicated all over Canada and the USA as well as England, Ireland, Scotland, Australia and New Zealand.

Although Mary is English and acquired her Irish roots through adoption, she loves everything Irish. She says that she is privileged to have been trusted with hundreds of children to teach whose families also love everything Irish.

The Butler Family

Mary Josephine "Mae" McDonnell Butler learned to dance in her native Dublin from Maggie Kane. Mae and husband Patrick Joseph "Paddy" Butler arrived in Toronto in 1953 with their sons, Michael, Patrick Jr., and daughter June. Mae opened an Irish dancing school where authentic Irish dancing was taught in its true and traditional manner.

At that time, she was the only TCRG in Toronto. Irish dancing was almost non-existent, but Mae went on to establish an Irish dancing empire. In 1964, Mae Butler traveled to New York to become one of the founding members of the Irish Dance Teachers Association of North America. The Butler Family were held in very high esteem among their fellow teachers, parents and students and this is epitomized by the refinement and perfection they projected through their highly trained dancers who competed with honour and excellence throughout North America and Ireland.

The Butlers, to their credit, produced many champion dancers, including their son, Patrick Jr., and their daughter June; both of whom went on to teach under the family name and spread Irish dance throughout eastern Canada and the United States. Along with World Champion dancers, the Butler School produced some 39 teachers and adjudicators. Mae Butler died in Toronto on January 16, 2003. She was a Vice President of An Coimisiún, and was inducted into the Irish Cultural Hall of Fame by The North American Feis Commission in 1982. Paddy Butler was a TMRF and renowned Irish musician; he died June 27, 1999, in Toronto. June Butler died June 19, 2003. Paddy Butler Jr. died in March 2007. Today people of Irish heritage humbly express their appreciation to the Butler Family. Their memory will live on forever in their children through Irish dancing and music.

LEGENDS OF CANADA

Brigid Grant

Brigid Grant was born and raised in County Kilkenny, where she studied Irish dancing under Mrs. Ruth until age fourteen. She emigrated to Toronto, Canada in 1958 where she met and married the love of her life, Bill Grant.

When Brigid's oldest son David was five years old she returned to dance classes under the direction of Noreen McMullin Quinn (a former pupil of the great Anna McCoy). Brigid began teaching her own school in 1968 and retired from teaching in 2011, at which time the school was passed to her niece and goddaughter Rose Fearon in an amalgamation with the Butler Fearon O'Connor School.

During her more than forty years of teaching Brigid produced many Canadian, North American and a few World Champions and had great success both in solos and teams on a regional and international basis. Brigid is also very proud to have been one of the founders of the Irish Dance Teachers Association of Canada.

Through the years her dancers have performed in numerous productions, including Riverdance, Lord of the Dance, the Trinity Company and many more. Brigid is also proud of the many former students who have become TCRGs and opened their own schools.

Brigid has been a well-known and respected adjudicator for many years and enjoyed the travel and company of her fellow legends through that time.

An accomplished singer, Brigid is very proud to have passed on her love of Irish culture, music and dance to her own children and her grandchildren. That passion was passed on with great success, as within the family there are titles from the World, North American, All Ireland, Great Britain championships.

Brigid has always felt her calling in life was to provide excellence in dancing while nurturing the same excellence in character to the young lives she has come in contact with. Her love for Irish dance and music is and will be an inspiration to all for generations to come.

LEGENDS OF CANADA

Paula Woodgate

Paula was born Eileen Paula Burke in Cork City, Ireland. In the late 1950s her parents emigrated with the family to Toronto, Canada. As no Irish dancing was available at the time, her mother enrolled her in tap, jazz, and baton. Fortunately, Mae Butler started teaching dancing and Paula was immediately enrolled in her classes. She won many championships in Canada and the United States. At one of her performances in the community she met her husband, Michael Woodgate from Kilkenny, and soon encouraged him to play his button accordion at the feiseanna. Eventually they married, had two children - Shannon and Brian - and devoted themselves to the Woodgate School of Irish Dancing. Paula produced hundreds of champions and her students have the distinction of being the first Canadian school to place in a team event at the World Championships in Dublin. In the early years of the World Championships, they won many Overseas Awards and competed in figure, ceili, and drama events with placements. The Woodgate Irish Dancers have danced for three prime ministers of Canada, the King and Queen of Spain, performed at the Canadian Olympics, and on Canadian television.

Paula is the founding president of the Irish Dance Teachers Association of Canada and through her perseverance Canada was recognized as a separate qualifying region for the World Championships. She established the "parade of champions" and the awarding of sashes, which are now enjoyed worldwide. She has served the Eastern Canadian Region for over 30 years as regional director or in other official capacities. She is an accredited adjudicator in demand worldwide and in North America. Her greatest thrill was being appointed vice president of An Coimisiún le Rincí Gaelacha.

Her love of Irish dancing has produced generations of dancers and she has the distinction of having taught 25 pupils who are now TCRGs. She acknowledges Irish dancing is one of the greatest gifts in her life and spreads through that love her dedication to the promotion of Irish dance. Two of her famous quotes are "pace each other towards perfection" and "without dance there is no music, and without music there is no dance." Paula would like to express her appreciation to CLRG for this recognition and to all those dancers and teachers who have been a part of this journey.

OIREACHTAS 2025

YKDA celebrating 45 years

To our YKDA team, dance with heart, dance with pride and most of all, enjoy every step!

Let your love of dance light up the stage. 🍀

Thank you to the Executive and volunteers who help keep the spirit of Irish dance alive through this fabulous event.

This weekend we honour Sue Fay Healy

A friend & colleague whose love of Irish dance will continue to inspire us all. Her legacy dances on in every step.
