Mid America Regional Director

Katie Nugent Gerhard

Congratulations from the IDTAMA
as you celebrate
40 years as a TCRG!

Katie Nugent Gerhard began her dance career at the age of five, when her father, who was originally from Boston and had Irish parents, wanted to raise his daughter Irish. Katie danced with the Irish Kerry Dancers, taught by Ann Richens and Tess Donnelly. She enjoyed both performing and competing throughout North America. Shortly after graduating from high school in 1981, she retired from competing as a champion dancer.

Teaching was a natural next step for Katie. While a student in college, she became certified in Toronto in July of 1984 and started teaching in both Dayton, OH and Indianapolis, IN. When the Dayton school grew and Katie started working full time, she passed on the Indianapolis school to an interested colleague.

Katie continues to be the sole instructor of the Nugent School of Irish Dance. Her dancers have won numerous awards at all levels - Regional, National, All Ireland and World Championships. She also continues to juggle her dedication to her family, which now also includes three grandchildren, a commitment to a full-time career in healthcare and her passion for teaching Irish Dance.

Mary Mayer McHugh

Congratulations from the IDTAMA
as you celebrate
40 years as a TCRG!

For over 40 years, Mary Mayer has been a TCRG in the Irish dance community, inspiring countless dancers and elevating the art form through her passion and dedication. Mary's first lessons in Irish Dance were in County Clare, Ireland with Mrs. Carney. Returning to the USA the Dennehy School became her home away from home. Mary follows the same philosophy she learned from Dennis and Marge having a career marked by exceptional achievements, Mary has become renowned not only for her teaching prowess but also for her commitment to fostering talent and camaraderie among dancers.

Throughout her career, Mary has organized numerous prestigious events and championships, bringing together the brightest stars of Irish dance. From local feiseanna to international competitions, her events have served as a platform for dancers to showcase their skills, culminating in numerous qualifiers for the World Championships.

Mary has cultivated a remarkable community of dancers. Her students have gone on to achieve incredible heights, with many becoming champions in their own right. Yet, perhaps her most cherished accomplishment is her enduring friendship with Kathy Dennehy, a bond that showcases Mary's ability to see the best in everyone—even in those who may not be the easiest to love.

As she continues to inspire the next generation of dancers, Mary Mayer's legacy is not just in the championships won or the accolades received, but in the countless lives she has touched through her love of Irish dance.

as you celebrate
25 years as a TCRG!

Irish Dance has forever been a part of me, but hiding under Ms. O'Hare's desk, playing with the long red cord from the studio's rotary phone is my first memory. It was around 1980. Class after class refusing to go on the dance floor, Tim's mom would hold my hand and lead me to him. Why I played shy and scared is beyond me because I cannot recall a time I felt either shy or scared in their presence. Apparently, it was all part of a secret plan that would lead me here today, celebrating 25 years of teaching!

As the youngest of four girls all taking Irish Dance, weekly Sunday class was something we looked forward to. I remember fighting with my sisters about who got to carry Tim's dinner plate into the studio. I won nearly every time (no surprise there). Years went by and my love and passion for Irish Dance continued to grow. As a teen, I enjoyed helping and teaching the younger dancers and encouraging them to show off their talents whenever possible.

After years of practice and competition, I was eager to stay involved in dance classes, sharing my knowledge and experiences along the way. I was fortunate to teach alongside Tim O'Hare for my entire career, holding true to my roots in the Detroit area where I currently teach the O'Hare School of Irish Dance. In addition to my TCRG certification ('99), I have also attained my ADCRG ('07) and BG ('24) certifications. I continue to enjoy teaching and adjudicating and was honored to be selected by my colleagues to adjudicate the 2024 North American National Championships.

It has been an amazing adventure, and I cannot imagine living my life any different. Many, many thanks to my family, friends and colleagues as well as to all of my students and parents, past and present, for your continued love and support. I would not be who I am today without all of you. I am excited to celebrate this weekend. Cheers!

Congratulations from the IDTAMA
as you celebrate
25 years as a TCRG!

Time sure goes by quickly ... 25 years, wow! It has been an honor to dance for and now teach alongside the legend herself, Tessie Burke. I started dancing at the Burke School when I was in the 4th grade which was late even back then. My neighbor danced and taught me the beginner reel at home. I went to a lesson with her and was hooked from that day on. Irish Dancing did not come easily to me but I worked hard at it and climbed through the levels. I was fortunate to qualify for the World Championships twice and dance both solos and on a choreography team.

Transitioning from a dancer to a TCRG then was not as common as it is today. I had not thought much about becoming a TCRG but I distinctly remember Ann Richens approaching me at a feis and asking, "when are you going to take your TCRG"? I said, "I'm not!" Well, Ann was not impressed. Ann told me taking your TCRG Exam was like graduating from Irish Dancing and that I really need to do it. With her encouragement and Tessie's guidance, I did it. The exam was intimidating and I remember breaking out in hives during the test & I thought for sure I had failed. Thankfully I passed and as they say, the rest is history!

I have had the opportunity to make amazing memories and see places I never would have had the chance to otherwise. Travelling to Ireland to dance in the World Championships was just a dream to dancers of my generation and I was fortunate enough to do so twice. The beauty of the country, kindness of the people and memories have stuck with me for all of these years.

My sincere thanks to Tessie, the Burke teaching staff, Des Bailey, the dancers and parents of the Burke School, the Mid America region and the unwavering support of my husband, Patrick. He is Irish but he had no idea what he was getting himself into! He now knows good dancing from bad and he is our student's biggest cheerleader.

I am extremely grateful to be part of a wonderful region, grateful to all of the people that have been such a huge influence on who I am today and mostly for the incredible lifelong friendships I have made along the way. It has been an honor to play a small part in the lives of countless numbers of children who have taught me as much as I have taught them. If I may share one piece of advice with younger teachers, keep Irish Dancing in perspective & make time for yourselves and your own families. Time goes by so quickly!

Thank You to the IDTAMA Board for this recognition and all the hard work of the Oireachtas committee for making this event possible. Best of luck to all of the dancers and teachers!

Congratulations from the IDTAMA
as you celebrate
40 years as a TCRG!

I started dancing in 1971 at the age of 7 under the instruction of Betty Scott-Kish. Travelling to feiseanna throughout the Midwest provided so many enjoyable memories and many, many lifetime friendships. Betty always made sure we had fun along the way.

At the age of 12 Betty asked me to help her with the beginner classes. Assisting with the younger dancers started me on this journey to teaching. Irish Dance, Irish Music and Irish Dance Friendships have been a part of my life every day since 1971. I can't imagine life any other way.

I danced with Betty from the time I was a beginner until I danced in my last feis at the age of 18. Tim O'Hare taught workshops for Betty and coached me along with Betty through my high school years. Your dance teachers become such an important part of your life. Knowing the important influence Betty and Tim had in my life has impacted my role as a teacher.

Taking young children on a journey from a young age until they are young adults is truly rewarding. Watching them grow through dance, take initiative, problem solve, learn focus and dedication is the most rewarding thing I could ask for. Irish dance provides dancers an avenue for quality social interaction and lifelong friendships.

We are all blessed to not only do what we love, but to reap all the rewards and friendships that come with. I am proud and grateful to be a part of the MidAmerica Region as well as the entire Irish Dance community. This has been a rewarding journey filled with love, friendship, and lifelong connections.

Theresa Shaffer Wilkinson

Congratulations from the IDTAMA
as you celebrate
25 years as a TCRG!

My family tree is deeply rooted in Irish music and dance. My namesake, Theresa Gallagher, gifted my late grandfather Gordon Shaffer with his first accordion. He and my father, Mike Shaffer are renowned feis musicians, and all of my 24 cousins either danced, played music, or both. You could say it was inevitable that I'd be involved in Irish dance somehow.

My Irish dance journey began at age four with the legendary Tessie Burke, who encouraged my talent and urged my dad to bring his accordion to class. Thanks to their support I managed to compete at regionals, nationals, and Worlds, but I've always valued the vibrant sense of community in Irish dance over any trophy or placement.

As a teenager, I started assisting with beginner classes and earned my TCRG certification in 1999. After college, my husband and I moved to Boston, where I co-founded the Dunleavy Shaffer School of Irish Dance. After ten successful years in New England, I relocated to Pittsburgh, where I now teach with my childhood friend & teammate Julia Bell.

Despite changes in Irish dance over the past 25 years, Mid-America still feels like "home" and I remain inspired by the kids and teachers who put their heart into continuing our wonderful traditions while also growing to meet the needs of the crazy world we live in.

Thank YOU!!!!

Thank you to our MuGster parents for the countless miles driven to class, the never-ending hours of waiting in your car for practice to end, and for the trust and support you've given the teaching staff in working with your children.

And to our hardworking "Dancing MuGsters" – thank you for giving us your "all", for practicing through blisters and aches, for doing your homework between soft shoes and hard shoes, for being there for your team mates, and for allowing us to teach you. More than anything, enjoy the weekend.

Medals and trophies will tarnish – but friendships made at class last a lifetime.

Finally, thank you to all the volunteer organizers who spent countless hours preparing for this weekend.

Mary, Peggy, John, Colleen, Caitlin, Brendan, Sinead and Orla
